

$1,000, plus costs of prosecution. In default of payment thereof, the defendant may be sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 90 days. Each day or portion thereof that such violation continues or is permitted to continue shall constitute a separate offense.

§ 73-5. Notice of violation; failure to remedy.

- A. Notwithstanding § 73-4 of this chapter, the Board of Supervisors may give notice to the owner of the public or private grounds on which a nuisance is maintained or allowed to be maintained to remove or remedy the nuisance within 30 days of receipt of such notice. Notice shall be sent to the owner at his residence by certified mail.
- B. In the event that the owner fails to remove or remedy the nuisance within 30 days of receipt of notice to do so, the Board of Supervisors may remove or remedy the nuisance or may institute proceedings in a court of equity to secure the relief which the court may deem just and proper.

§ 73-6. Township to do work; recovery of costs and penalties.

In the event that the owner of public or private grounds on which a nuisance is maintained fails to remove or remedy the nuisance as directed by the Board of Supervisors or by a court of equity, the Board of Supervisors may remove or remedy the nuisance and collect the cost of removal or remedy together with a fine of not more than $1,000, plus costs of prosecution, upon conviction in a summary proceeding brought before a District Justice under the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure, or in the manner provided for the collection of municipal claims or by an action of assumpsit without the filing of a claim. In default of payment thereof, the defendant may be sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 90 days. Each day or portion thereof that such violation continues or is permitted to continue shall constitute a separate offense.
